

A SONG WRITTEN FOR MUTHONI

Precious Laughter

Birthday

1:19

3:53

On the phone, we share so many hours
Your laughter turns the time to gold
Your charm unfolds like gentle flowers
And makes the quiet feel less cold

*Teresia Muthoni, your dark skin softly glows
You mean so much to my family and me
Your charm and laughter steal the show
Forever precious, near to me*

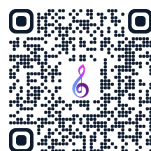

Almost each day, we talk by phone
Your funny ways bring warm delight
Those hours make me feel less alone
I hear your laughter ringing bright
Your charm can make the long calls fly
Your laughter lingers in my ear
I hold the joy in each reply
It stays with me, so bright and clear

*Teresia Muthoni, your dark skin softly glows
You mean so much to my family and me
Your charm and laughter steal the show
Forever precious, near to me*

On the eleventh of December, birthday cheer
May laughter meet you many years through
May all your days stay bright and clear
And may your heart know love is true

*Teresia Muthoni, your dark skin softly glows
You mean so much to my family and me
Your charm and laughter steal the show
Forever precious, near to me*

*May every call still carry cheer
You'll stay within my heart, my dear*
