

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JOJO

Beauty of My Life

Just because

1:09

3:23

At Hops, our blind date made me smile
You ate my soup, then drank my drink
Right then, I knew I'd stay awhile
Love rose before I stopped to think
One little table, one clear sign
Your heart was meant to beat with mine

*JoJo, you're the beauty of my life
Your loving heart turns darkness into light
You held our hearts so close and tight
Always my beautiful wife*

On our wedding day, you gave my son a cross
It spoke of love that knows no loss
You promised you would be his mother
And loved him deeply like no other
We lost our parents side by side
Each other's rock through all the pain
When grief was cold and deep inside
We found the strength to stand again

*JoJo, you're the beauty of my life
Your loving heart turns darkness into light
You held our hearts so close and tight
Always my beautiful wife*

Just because, my heart still wants to sing
I'll choose you with a steady heart
I'll treasure every little thing
As I have done right from the start

*JoJo, you're the beauty of my life
Your loving heart turns darkness into light
You held our hearts so close and tight
Always my beautiful wife*

*That soup and drink still bring me near
To where I knew that love was clear*
