

A SONG WRITTEN FOR LILY

Always by Your Side

Birthday

1:11

3:30

My Lily girl, a blessing born
I'd never change you for the world
We blast R&B in the car
And sing out loud just as we are
For hours, we sit on the sofa
Always putting the world to rights
We laugh until our belly's hurt
Laugh more, that's when we're at our best

*Lily, happy sixteenth birthday
My best friend, I'll love you always
Be you, my flower, you're born to thrive
I'll be by your side through all your life*

Sixteen years with my clever girl
Most beautiful girl in the world
Through every laugh and every fight
You are my sunshine and my light
You drive me mad, then make me smile
I love your sassy, funny style
You're my Lily moo, beautiful soul
Your warm heart gives its love to all

*Lily, happy sixteenth birthday
My best friend, I'll love you always
Keep being you, you're born to thrive
I'll be by your side through all your life*

Now the big wide world is calling
I'll be by your side through it all
Don't care what all the haters say
You're perfect in every way

*Lily, happy sixteenth birthday
My best friend, I'll love you always
Keep being you, you're born to thrive
I'll be by your side through all your life*

One day, we'll grow old together
Still there for one another
Lily moo, love you to the moon and back
My best friend for life, again and again
