A SONG WRITTEN FOR RICCARDO

Shining Bright at Twenty

Birthday

In two thousand and six, you arrived
A welcome surprise, our hearts alive
With smiles and laughter, warm and bright
You slept so softly through the night
From the very start, you were our heart
Your joy became our brightest part

> Riccardo, twenty years, you rise above
> Happy birthday, your dreams rise high
> We watch your future fill the sky
> You are our world, our light, our love

You love to work under the chrome
The exhaust reverb feels like home
With every turn the engines burn
With every motor, a lesson learned
Amelia walks there by your side
So strong the love that you provide
You guard the ones you hold so dear
With kindness, courage, always near

> Riccardo, twenty years, you rise above
> Happy birthday, your dreams rise high
> We watch your future fill the sky
> You are our world, our light, our love

Keep every kindness close and near
Protect the ones you hold so dear
Wherever life may lead you through
Our pride and love will follow you

> Riccardo, twenty years, you rise above
> Happy birthday, your dreams rise high
> We watch your future fill the sky
> You are our world, our light, our love

You're the calm to a storm, shining bright
You fill our world with love and light
