

A SONG WRITTEN FOR VANDA

Forever Soul Mate

Birthday

1:13

3:35

At the Hideaway club one night
Your laughter warmed the room with light
We let the hours drift away
And made the shadows want to stay
Your caring heart came shining through
That night drew me so close to you

*Vanda, on your birthday, hear me say
You still are my best friend each day
Thank you for the love you show
My forever soul mate, I know*

I gave you harsh words one night
I'm so sorry for hurting you
And cannot make it right
My family hated you, I knew
Still, you were caring, kind, and true
Feeding the Ponkeys made us smile
We held that little joy awhile
You stayed the friend I needed most
A light when I was feeling lost

*Vanda, on your birthday, hear me say
You still are my best friend each day
Thank you for the love you show
My forever soul mate, I know*

For all the days still out of sight
I'll keep our friendship burning bright
May every Boggle game you play
Be better every single day

*Vanda, on your birthday, hear me say
You still are my best friend each day
Thank you for the love you show
My forever soul mate, I know*

*The Hideaway still holds that light
Our laughter echoes through the night*
