

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JEFF

King of My Heart

Just because

1:16

3:44

At our kids' high school, our story began
I felt my whole heart change its plan
We rode our bikes, letting worries fly
Just being together, you and I
Your hand in mine would hold me tight
Your kiss could make the whole day bright

*Jeff, you're the king within my heart
No words can tell how you set me apart
My friend, my lover, my confidant
You are forever all I want*

Out on the water, fishing side by side
Those quiet hours moved just like the tide
You made me laugh, you made me smile
With every joke, you'd stay awhile
When I was sick, you stayed so near
In hospital, you calmed my fear
You took such loving care of me
And gave my heart room just to breathe

*Jeff, you're the king within my heart
No words can tell how you set me apart
My friend, my lover, my confidant
You are forever all I want*

I'll hold your hand through all our days
And meet your teasing with my praise
Whatever comes, I want you near
My heart will choose you year by year

*Jeff, you're the king within my heart
No words can tell how you set me apart
My friend, my lover, my confidant
You are forever all I want*

*Still, side by side, our hearts will stay
Forever, love will lead our way*
