

A SONG WRITTEN FOR MARK AND VALMAI

Timeless Love Story

Anniversary

1:09

3:22

At fourteen, you walked off to school
He wolf-whistled from his childhood home
At barely sixteen, he broke the rule
At friends' party, you weren't alone
By chance, your story found its start
With teenage eyes and open hearts

*Mark and Valmai, forty-four years strong
You chose each other all along
You taught us love can see us through
Love carries us right through*

In nineteen eighty-three, Tye came
A family grew from that first flame
Mervin raised that home with bare hands
You built a business from your plans
When dark days called, you drove away
Thousands of miles, you came to stay
When a system failed, you held my hand
You stood with me and made me stand

*Mark and Valmai, forty-four years strong
You chose each other all along
You taught us love can see us through
Love carries us right through*

In twenty-two, you met Marni Moo
Your first page opened, fresh and new
This anniversary lets us see
Love is our family's legacy

*Mark and Valmai, forty-four years strong
You chose each other all along
You taught us love can see us through
Love carries us right through*

*You still hold close as lovers do
With teenage eyes still shining through*
