A SONG WRITTEN FOR AIMEE

Lost at Sea

Birthday

When Paris introduced us, I smiled
The air felt lighter from that day
I made a gift hunt, running wild
Through Upper Sandusky's bright array
Then Kenton held a waiting clue
Each step revealed my love was true

> Aimee, you mean the world to me
> I hide it more than I should show
> Without you, I'd be lost at sea
> You're my whole world, you know

That blood clot filled my heart with fear
Your brother's loss was hard to bear
Still side by side, we drew more near
Your caring heart was always there
With Zander, all the shock was real
But day by day, he grows anew
Your former nurse's heart can heal
With patient hands in all you do

> Aimee, you mean the world to me
> I hide it more than I should show
> Without you, I'd be lost at sea
> You're my whole world, you know

On your birthday, let this be clear
I'll work to show the love I feel
Though I make mistakes, year by year
I'll show you love that's strong and real

> Aimee, you mean the world to me
> I hide it more than I should show
> Without you, I'd be lost at sea
> You're my whole world, you know

Like pages, may our story shine
I'm grateful that your hand is mine
