

A SONG WRITTEN FOR SAMMY

Always My Home

Anniversary

1:13

3:34

In March '97, Florida air
You came to visit a friend there
You stared at my picture, asked to meet
One question made my whole heart leap
Brian McKnight on repeat at night
Love crossed the distance, shining bright

*Sammy, you have always been my home
Through every storm, you never let me go
I thank you for the love you've shown
Always and forever, my home*

Before the mirror, you'd say, "Marry me"
Your gentle words would set my heart free
Aidan and Ariana filled our days
We danced to Suavemente, amazed
Then loss and sickness brought us pain
You held me through the tears again
You were my strength when days were long
You made our family feel so strong

*Sammy, you have always been my home
Through every storm, you never let me go
I thank you for the love you've shown
Always and forever, my home*

Twenty-seven years since "I do"
Since November '99, still true
On this anniversary, I say
I'd choose you through each coming day

*Sammy, you have always been my home
Through every storm, you never let me go
I thank you for the love you've shown
Always and forever, my home*

*Your hand in mine still feels like home
My family, where my heart has grown*
