A SONG WRITTEN FOR LISA

Always Choosing You

Birthday

At work, we met on that first aid course
A quiet spark began to glow
Your strength became my steady force
Then led us to our wedding vows
Three years later, we said 'I do'
Still every road comes back to you

> Lisa, you always put us first
> When my own thoughts were hard to bear
> You made our home a place of worth
> Always holding us with tender care

When Charlie first was in our arms
Your loving heart lit up the room
You held our world with steady calm
And made the dark give way to bloom
Then grief came knocking at our door
Your father and mine passed away
We held each other all the more
And walked through every heavy day

> Lisa, you always put us first
> When my own thoughts were hard to bear
> You made our home a place of worth
> Always holding us with tender care

In Turkey, we found friends so true
In Sorrento, every day was bright
When May comes next year, we'll travel too
Happy birthday, you're my delight

> Lisa, you always put us first
> When my own thoughts were hard to bear
> You made our home a place of worth
> Always holding us with tender care

That first aid course still lights my way
And I choose you, day after day
