

A SONG WRITTEN FOR ALLISON

Chosen Every Day

Just because

1:16

3:43

At Wednesday night Bible study, we met
You bumped into me that very night
That moment I could not forget
I felt your energy burn bright
You said you'd dreamed of me, knew not why
We talked half the night, time flying by

*Allison, I choose you first each day
Before all else, in every way
You make me whole, you make life new
God blessed me with you*

One Sunday, you were cooking dinner
I held you close; I knew for sure
Right in that moment, love was clear
I knew my soulmate's heart was here
When you were leaving, I missed you so
Before you even had to go
After one night, I drove six hours there
We sat in ocean water without care

*Allison, I choose you first each day
Before all else, in every way
You make me whole, you make life new
God blessed me with you*

I sat beside you there at church
We made small talk a time or two
Told my sister, no one else I'd choose
Unless God blessed me with you
I'd spend this life alone, I said
But God had heard my heart
He knew exactly where to start
And gave me you to hold

We danced to music after midnight
Your hand in mine, it felt so right
I'll choose you first in all I do
I don't want life without you

*Allison, I choose you first each day
Before all else, in every way
You make me whole, you make life new
God blessed me with you*

*God heard my prayer that Wednesday night
And brought you gently into sight*
