

A SONG WRITTEN FOR EMMA

Choose You Always

Just because

1:06

3:13

We moved the TV, laughed all the way
It was bigger than the car that day
I drove like T-Rex, stiff and slow
You made that crazy moment glow
That little scene still feels brand new
Because each laugh comes back to you

*Emma, you're my world, my bunny dear
When I was lost, you stayed so near
You saw the good in all I do
I will always choose you*

At T in the Park, our song took flight
Our first happy adventure felt right
You had your reasons to walk away
Yet you stood by me anyway
You saw what I could not see
You found the good inside of me
Your goofy side still makes me smile
Your funny heart stays all the while

*Emma, you're my world, my bunny dear
When I was lost, you stayed so near
You saw the good in all I do
I will always choose you*

Whatever comes, I'll choose your side
And hold your hand through every tide
No road ahead can change what's true
My world will always lead to you

*Emma, you're my world, my bunny dear
When I was lost, you stayed so near
You saw the good in all I do
I will always choose you*

*The TV was bigger than the car
You are my world, just as you are*
