A SONG WRITTEN FOR BRYAN

My Always, Every Day

Anniversary

We met online, our worlds aligned
Through family names, the links ran deep
My aunt was one more thread to find
Those little signs were ours to keep
We won tickets with our crazy tale
And laughed as if we could not fail

> Bryan, I love you beyond easy days
> When all else is temporary, you're my always
> I'll share every season, come what may
> You are my always, every day

Out in nature, side by side
Your patient love became my guide
With fur babies close, we found our cheer
Their little paws made home feel near
When sickness came, we stayed so near
We held each other through the fear
Your wisdom gave us room to grow
Your loving strength would not let go

> Bryan, I love you beyond easy days
> When all else is temporary, you're my always
> I'll share every season, come what may
> You are my always, every day

On this anniversary, I say
I'll spend forever making clear
How much you mean, come what may
Each season, I will want you near

> Bryan, I love you beyond easy days
> When all else is temporary, you're my always
> I'll share every season, come what may
> You are my always, every day

Through nature, hand in hand, we go
My always in the love we know
