A SONG WRITTEN FOR DANIEL

A Mother's Prayer

Birthday

The day you came into my arms
You were the second of five boys
Your giving heart became your charm
And filled my world with brighter joys
You give your love to those held dear
Your caring heart brings peace and cheer

> Daniel, at fifty, hear my prayer
> May luck and health walk everywhere
> Whatever choices fill your days
> Love and hugs, Mum, always

Your daughter's finding her own way
At thirteen, she needs wider skies
Yet all your love will be her stay
And change can cloud a worrier's eyes
When lung cancer took your dad away
Grief left its shadow in our room
Love held us close through every grey
Then hope returned against the gloom

> Daniel, at fifty, hear my prayer
> May luck and health walk everywhere
> Whatever choices fill your days
> Love and hugs, Mum, always

Whatever choices lie ahead
May wealth and happiness be spread
May luck and health be ever near
My love will follow through each year

> Daniel, at fifty, hear my prayer
> May luck and health walk everywhere
> Whatever choices fill your days
> Love and hugs, Mum, always

Keep walking on beneath the sun
To me, you'll always be my son
