A SONG WRITTEN FOR QUEEN GAN NYAWELLO

Tender Touch of Love

Just because

On Mount Rainier, we danced as the sunset began
Your laughing eyes made music again
The ferry ride was glowing and slow
At Orcas Island, side by side we'd go
At Mount Constitution, you held me near
Your tender love made the journey clear

> Queen Gan Nyawello, your smile makes my whole world bright
> Your tender touch makes all things right
> You show children how love unfurls
> With your tender smile, you light up my world

At Point Defiance, our bicycles flew
Each turning mile made dreams feel new
Your wit turned every moment bright
Your laughter kept the whole evening light
When you encourage children, I see
How tenderly you set love free
Creative, grounded, full of fire
You make my heart rise ever higher

> Queen Gan Nyawello, your smile makes my whole world bright
> Your tender touch makes all things right
> You show children how love unfurls
> With your tender smile, you light up my world

SOAR South Sudan, our vision, our passion
Just because, I sing this song tonight
May every dream rise into action
Your tender smile still shines so bright

> Queen Gan Nyawello, your smile makes my whole world bright
> Your tender touch makes all things right
> You show children how love unfurls
> With your tender smile, you light up my world

One tender touch can clear the view
Then I keep dancing close to you
