A SONG WRITTEN FOR ANGELINA AND ALLYSON

Love's Guiding Light

Just because

My firstborn daughters, held so near
Two little hearts I treasured dear
Your caring ways bring gentle light
Your kindness makes the dark feel bright
Such sweet souls, loving through and through
My every thought comes back to you

> Angelina and Allyson, when I roam
> Baba's love still finds its way back home
> I think of you through every day
> Let your Tao mind not slip away

When work calls Baba far away
I think of you throughout the day
When travel takes me far abroad
My love stays close, though miles are broad
Keep cultivating Tao each day
Don't let its quiet slip away
Don't lose yourselves in what is bought
Keep love and kindness close in thought

> Angelina and Allyson, when I roam
> Baba's love still finds its way back home
> I think of you through every day
> Let your Tao mind not slip away

May your Tao mind become your guide
And keep its gentle light inside
I'll hold you close, though I must roam
With all my love, you're still my home

> Angelina and Allyson, when I roam
> Baba's love still finds its way back home
> I think of you through every day
> Let your Tao mind not slip away

My firstborn daughters, in my heart
No road can keep my love apart
