A SONG WRITTEN FOR MRS BUNNI

Forever Mr and Mrs Bunni

Anniversary

1:28 4:20

On the twelfth of November, twenty twenty-five,
At the Chapel House, you walked into my life.
I never knew that love could feel so right,
Until you came and made my world so bright.

Our first kiss happened in that very same place,
I still remember the smile upon your face.
From that first moment, something in me knew,
I'd found the kind of love I'd waited for in you.

> Oh Mrs Bunni, you're the best part of my life,
> The one I dream of calling my wife.
> Through every storm, whatever we go through,
> Forever Mr and Mrs Bunni, me and you.

You held me close when depression pulled me down,
With endless patience, you helped me turn around.
Your kindness gave me strength to face each day,
And little by little, you helped me find my way.

You've shown such love to my mum and grandkids too,
They've felt that special kindness I've found in you.
From Blackpool days to bowling, where I won
the game,
We laugh about it now, and I still love you
the same.

> Oh Mrs Bunni, you're the best part of my life,
> The one I dream of calling my wife.
> Through every storm, whatever we go through,
> Forever Mr and Mrs Bunni, me and you.

Let's give Bunni Rose the chance to bloom someday,
And leave the hurt of yesterday behind, where it can stay.
You've cared for everyone, now put yourself
first too,
Let's start a brand-new chapter, just me and you.

> Oh Mrs Bunni, you're the love I want for life,
> My greatest wish is to make you my wife.
> We'll face the future with a love that's strong and true,
> Forever Mr and Mrs Bunni, me and you.

Happy anniversary, my darling, I love you endlessly,
Your Mr Bunni, forever yours, just you and me.

Scan to listen to your song