A SONG WRITTEN FOR AMANDA

Eternal Love's Embrace

Just because

1:24 4:08

When first we met, you hated me outright
Still I believed that love would turn it right
Across the diner table, on our date
Your eyes made all the world fall still and wait
Then in a car park came our first sweet kiss
I knew my heart had found its home in this

> Amanda, you're my soulmate, heart and home
> Before I found you, I was so alone
> Thank you, my love, for being my wife
> Our love will never die

In July of ninety-seven, we were wed
I was in heaven with each word you said Then life brought a lifelong illness to your door
But I will stand beside you more and more
Your strength still holds me when the days are long
I'll hold your hand; together we are strong
I'll be your rock through all that's still ahead
And hold your hand through every road we tread

> Amanda, you're my soulmate, heart and home
> Before I found you, I was so alone
> Thank you, my love, for being my wife
> Our love will never die

Whatever comes, I'll stay right by your side
Your faithful love will always be my guide
I promise I will hold your hand each day
Together, we will find our way

> Amanda, you're my soulmate, heart and home
> Before I found you, I was so alone
> Thank you, my love, for being my wife
> Our love will never die

Across the table, I still see your eyes
That first sweet look still lights my darkest skies
