A SONG WRITTEN FOR HECTOR

Moments Set in Stone

Birthday

You found me dancing, then you took a chance
You asked for my phone in one quick glance
Next day, your message was unseen by me
Then when you called, we talked so easily
Within a week, you asked me out to dine
Then kisses made each moment feel so fine

> Hector, on your birthday, let me say
> I'm glad our moments found their way
> Your kiss is the best I've ever known
> Each special moment, set in stone

Your deepest feelings showed within your eyes
That quiet truth became a sweet surprise
You are the sexiest man I've known
Your kiss still stays when I'm alone
Your smile makes every second feel brand new
The time we share is valuable and true
When things don't go the way you had planned
My open arms will help you understand

> Hector, on your birthday, let me say
> I'm glad our moments found their way
> Your kiss is the best I've ever known
> Each special moment, set in stone

On your birthday, may your days shine bright
May every dream come gently into sight
Wherever you are, I want you near
To see you again, year after year

> Hector, on your birthday, let me say
> I'm glad our moments found their way
> Your kiss is the best I've ever known
> Each special moment, set in stone

That first long call still makes me smile
Your smile stays with me all the while
