A SONG WRITTEN FOR TC

Endless Love Journey

Just because

Back in ’84, you rode by on your Harley
I knew that day what we were meant to be
My heart was home with you already
You saw the truest part of me
On the ’65 Panhead, roads stretched ahead
Those loving miles still echo in my head

> Tc, your arms make all my doubts disappear
> Your loyal heart has always brought me near
> Forty-two years later, I love you more
> Our whole lotta love forevermore

In ’94, our separate roads began
For thirty-two years, life had other plans
But all that time, I held our old flame
My heart still loved you just the same
Brother Bert said, “Check in,” inside my dream
I did, and love came back to life in me
Now inseparable, standing tall
Blessed and grateful through it all

> Tc, your arms make all my doubts disappear
> Your loyal heart has always brought me near
> Forty-two years later, I love you more
> Our whole lotta love forevermore

Whenever needed, you are there
Your steady hands have shown how much you care
You’ve been a father to my children too
And did the best that you could do
Your dogs are a safe place for your heart
The love you give them shows your gentlest part
Your compassion and guidance see me through
And every day I find my peace in you

I’ll trust the road that lies ahead
I’ll choose your love the whole way through
The way you hold me clears my dread
Your love will guide my heart anew

> Tc, your arms make all my doubts disappear
> Your loyal heart has always brought me near
> Forty-two years later, I love you more
> Our whole lotta love forevermore

Two souls still finding their way home
One love, though different paths may roam
