A SONG WRITTEN FOR ESTHER

Meant to Be

Anniversary

1:14 3:39

In that small village gift shop door
I found a reason to walk in
Each day I'd buy a little more
To hide the hope beneath my grin
I asked if you could find one thing
Your gentle call gave hope its wing

> Esther, I hope you feel loved like I do
> May all my love be clear to you
> My myninion, you're my soul mate
> Meant to be, our love is fate

From Scotland down to Wales for you
Seven long hours each way I drive
Together every day we knew
And keep our fragile hope alive
This year grief brought its darkest night
You held me when I hit the floor
Your patient love became my light
And helped me breathe and rise once more

> Esther, I hope you feel loved like I do
> May all my love be clear to you
> My myninion, you're my soul mate
> Meant to be, our love is fate

This, our 25th anniversary,
I'm sure you know all you are to me
I'll show you more, every passing day
So you can feel it endlessly

> Esther, I hope you feel loved like I do
> May all my love be clear to you
> My myninion, you're my soul mate
> Meant to be, our love is fate

One gentle call still lights my way
I thank the day you chose to stay
