A SONG WRITTEN FOR MAYUMI

Eternal Waves of Faith

Just because

On the beach in Omika, waves were low
I said, “My stomach hurts when I think of you”
I hoped my silent heart would let you know
Love found a voice in all I could not do
That day became the start of all our days
And lit my fear with quiet, hopeful rays

> Mayumi, you stood strong through every storm
> Your faith has kept our trembling hearts warm
> We face the unknown together
> I’ll love you forever

Your family said our marriage could not be
But you would not say no to me
You stood in faith and would not sway
At your house, your father gave his word that day
“Take care of my daughter,” he said
Those words still echo in my head
His answer cleared the heaviest cloud
At last, our joy could speak aloud

> Mayumi, you stood strong through every storm
> Your faith has kept our trembling hearts warm
> We face the unknown together
> I’ll love you forever

You give our children courage every day
And think of others on your way
Your hopeful heart will not give in
You find the strength to start again
Beautiful inside and out
Your steady love outlasts all doubt
You keep me standing by your side
With faith and hope our hearts abide

In August 2026, cancer came
We cried to God and called His name
You believed God may have other plans
I’ll hold your hand through shifting sands

> Mayumi, you stood strong through every storm
> Your faith has kept our trembling hearts warm
> We face the unknown together
> I’ll love you forever

“Itsu made mo aishite iru”
My heart comes home again to you
