A SONG WRITTEN FOR PAIGE

No More Walls

Its to say I'm sorry and I love her

1:03 3:04

We took our first picnic to the wood
I knew then you were the one for me
Your smile made the whole room feel good
Your beautiful eyes set my heart free
The way you looked at me felt true
I saw what loving hearts could do

> Paige, I'm sorry for the hurt I made
> I love you, though I let you down
> No more walls, I'm no more afraid
> I've always been all yours and always will

On our first night together in York
Our first kiss made me ask for more
That look in your eyes would always stay
We were playful in our own way
I shouted for you to leave the house
I should have never forced you out
I said I wasn't in love with you
But that was a lie, it wasn't true

> Paige, I'm sorry for the hurt I made
> I love you, though I let you down
> No more walls, I'm no more afraid
> I've always been all yours and always will

There are no more walls in my way
I'm the man you knew I could be
I'll be here, just as you stayed
My life revolves around you and me

> Paige, I'm sorry for the hurt I made
> I love you, though I let you down
> No more walls, I'm no more afraid
> I've always been all yours and always will

Your smile still lights the room for me
I'm finally here, where I'm meant to be
