A SONG WRITTEN FOR ANNIE

Wings of Dreams

Birthday

From Seoul, I followed you afar
At twenty-five, you were in Seoul
Each overseas trip, a shining star
Still, I could see your plans take flight
Though different states can keep us apart
Your calls and plans still warm my heart

> Annie, happy birthday, we cheer
> You followed your dream to the sky
> At twenty-five, your path is clear
> Onwards and upwards, you fly

You chased the dream you held so dear
Now as a pilot, you take flight
We watched you grow through every year
So lovely, sassy, full of light
In Dubai, you love to shop and roam
Your overseas trips take you from home
Salsa dancing keeps you free
You call and share each plan with me

> Annie, happy birthday, we cheer
> You followed your dream to the sky
> At twenty-five, your path is clear
> Onwards and upwards, you fly

May every new horizon glow
May every dream still feel like flight
I'll follow where your journeys go
And cheer you onward, shining bright

> Annie, happy birthday, we cheer
> You followed your dream to the sky
> At twenty-five, your path is clear
> Onwards and upwards, you fly

Across the states, you still draw near
I'm proud of you, year after year
