A SONG WRITTEN FOR FELIX SANTOS

Steady Care

Birthday

The day you asked me to be your girl
My whole heart started to spin and whirl
You held my hand with gentle grace
And gave my dreaming heart a place
Your gentle love would calm my fears
And keep me safe throughout the years

> Felix Santos, thank you for your steady care
> When my skies turn heavy, you are there
> Your loving heart remains my guide
> Always standing right by my side

You are the kindest man I know
Your loving heart has helped me grow
You keep me safe with patient care
Whenever I need you, you are there
Even when your own heart feels low
You lift me up and let hope grow
My husband, you are strong and kind
A gentler soul I'll never find

> Felix Santos, thank you for your steady care
> When my skies turn heavy, you are there
> Your loving heart remains my guide
> Always standing right by my side

Today I wish you joy and light
May all your dreams be shining bright
On your birthday, I want you near
To thank you for another year

> Felix Santos, thank you for your steady care
> When my skies turn heavy, you are there
> Your loving heart remains my guide
> Always standing right by my side

Your kindness warms my quiet nights
And fills my heart with golden light
