A SONG WRITTEN FOR EBONY

Home to Me

Christmas

At Uhaul, your smile lit up my day
Your natural beauty took my breath away
Like God had sent you straight my way
And gave my heart a hopeful start
Once you almost got away from me
I knew our love was meant to be

> Ebony, God will see us through the night
> With one another, we'll be all right
> You're the best part of my recovery
> You're home to me, you're home to me

You put our family first each day
Your selfless heart still led the way
In 2021, we bought our home
And gave our dreams a place to roam
Before our son, miscarriages came
The diagnosis brought us pain
In 2025, our first son arrived
And made our family feel alive

> Ebony, God will see us through the night
> With one another, we'll be all right
> You're the best part of my recovery
> You're home to me, you're home to me

This Christmas, I thank God for you
For all the healing we've walked through
Whatever God has still in store
I'll love you even more and more

> Ebony, God will see us through the night
> With one another, we'll be all right
> You're the best part of my recovery
> You're home to me, you're home to me

Your smile still brightens every day
And lights the road along our way
