A SONG WRITTEN FOR SHANOYA

Eternal Glow

Birthday

The day we met, the whole park seemed to glow
I knew my search was over, deep inside
Your witty jokes made all my worries go
Beside me, you could show your truest side
Your angel smile lit something in my heart
From then, I knew we'd never be apart

> Shanoya, no love has ever felt so true
> Thank you for loving me through and through
> Every day, each hour and minute, I'll stay
> Each second, I'll be there, come what may

At the Alicia Keys concert, side by side
Our first kiss made the whole night feel brand new
That first official date still is my guide
Each time I find my way back home to you
Through your illness, I saw your strength arise
We held on close when days were hard to bear
You showed me courage shining in your eyes
I learned I can't live without you there

> Shanoya, no love has ever felt so true
> Thank you for loving me through and through
> Every day, each hour and minute, I'll stay
> Each second, I'll be there, come what may

In Mexico, our first vacation was a blast
Your birthday filled my heart with hope so clear
I knew I'd marry you, and we would last
Today, I celebrate your birthday here

> Shanoya, no love has ever felt so true
> Thank you for loving me through and through
> Every day, each hour and minute, I'll stay
> Each second, I'll be there, come what may

Your laughter fills the spaces in my heart
With you, each day feels like a brand new start
