A SONG WRITTEN FOR PAMELA

Golden Heart, Timeless Love

We met 47 years a go and been married 44 years

1:19 3:53

At fifteen, I asked you for a date
You said yes, and altered fate
My scruffy clothes were far from grand
You gently took my shaking hand
Electric Light Orchestra played
Its melodies would light our days

> Pamela, your heart is made of gold
> You lift the ones who need your care
> You make their cloudy days unfold
> I love you millions, I swear

The night before our wedding day
I threw stones at your windowpane
I would not go home, come what may
Till you heard those stones again
You beat breast cancer, standing strong
Five times, I survived that fight
We held each other all along
And found our way toward the light

> Pamela, your heart is made of gold
> You lift the ones who need your care
> You make their cloudy days unfold
> I love you millions, I swear

You never cared for wealth or gold
You wish our friends and family well
You put their needs before your own
Your thoughts of them have much to tell
You never moan, you let me be
You say, 'Go out, enjoy tonight'
You laugh at Frank Spencer and me
You love to dance beneath the light

Forty-seven years since we met
Forty-four years as man and wife
My heart has never known regret
I'll choose you for my whole life

> Pamela, your heart is made of gold
> You lift the ones who need your care
> You make their cloudy days unfold
> I love you millions, I swear

Still dancing through the golden light
Still holding on to you tonight
