A SONG WRITTEN FOR ALISON

Home Will Always Be You

Birthday

At Alan, and Lorraine's, we met one night
A blind date that changed my world for good
Back in 1991, hearts took flight
Two strangers finding all they ever could
Your honest eyes made every word ring true
Your generous heart kept shining through

> Alison, on your birthday, I say
> Amazing wife, so loyal and true
> You're always there for us every day
> Home will always be you

In 1993, we said "I do"
That promise still feels bright and strong and new
In Bournemouth, our honeymoon days glowed
Each waking hour a memory to hold
On our canal boat, holidays would flow
Your parents' smiles made all the water glow
Then losing your family brought the rain
I held you close through every quiet pain

> Alison, on your birthday, I say
> Amazing wife, so loyal and true
> You're always there for us every day
> Home will always be you

I'll keep your hand inside my own
Through every turn, you won't be alone
I'll choose you as the years unfold
And keep our love more bright than gold

> Alison, on your birthday, I say
> Amazing wife, so loyal and true
> You're always there for us every day
> Home will always be you

One blind date became my guiding light
And still your love makes everything bright
With Maggi and Sparky by our side
Alison, I love you
