A SONG WRITTEN FOR HELEN

Endless Sisterhood

Christmas

As kids, we fought, then laughed until we cried
With all that love we kept so deep inside
We shared our dreams and secrets in the night
Those little talks still hold our hearts so tight
You tell it straight, you've always stayed so near
You work so hard, your heart is bright and clear

> Helen, you're more than my sissy, it's true
> My best friend, you mean the whole world to me
> Through thick and thin, I can rely on you
> I love you, sissy, endlessly

When we lost Mom, a silence filled the room
We held on close and faced that heavy gloom
I made us match like Mom did long ago
You thought it hideous, still wore them though
We found a love that's stronger with the years
Through thick and thin, you've dried away my tears
You're always there when shadows cross my view
I know I can face anything with you

> Helen, you're more than my sissy, it's true
> My best friend, you mean the whole world to me
> Through thick and thin, I can rely on you
> I love you, sissy, endlessly

At Christmas, may your days be warm and bright
I'll hold our bond so close on winter nights
Wherever life may lead you from this day
I'll be right here with you, come what may

> Helen, you're more than my sissy, it's true
> My best friend, you mean the whole world to me
> Through thick and thin, I can rely on you
> I love you, sissy, endlessly

From childhood tears to laughter, side by side
Our love is still the place where I reside
