A SONG WRITTEN FOR KRISTEN

Through Your Eyes

Just because

At Golden Corral, I saw your grace
A tender light warmed up the place
Your patient smile stayed soft awhile
Your loving eyes made time worthwhile
I knew my heart had found its way
And asked for you to always stay

> Kristen, I wish you saw you through my eyes
> Your tender heart outshines the skies
> Through every storm, I'll be your guide
> I will not leave your side

When your dad died, the world stood still
I held your hand with all my will
Your forgiving heart still let tears fall
Yet love kept breathing through it all
Your tender strength has seen me through
Your patient love stays warm and true
I see the beauty in your soul
Your loving heart makes me feel whole

> Kristen, I wish you saw you through my eyes
> Your tender heart outshines the skies
> Through every storm, I'll be your guide
> I will not leave your side

When hard roads rise before our view
I'll keep on walking close to you
Through every season, come what may
My love will not be pulled away

> Kristen, I wish you saw you through my eyes
> Your tender heart outshines the skies
> Through every storm, I'll be your guide
> I will not leave your side

Golden Corral, that meeting place
I see your light upon your face
