A SONG WRITTEN FOR BABYGIRL GIGI

Forever in Your Eyes

She's the love of my life

That dating site is where I first found you
We hit it off like daylight through the rain
So many things felt right, familiar too
Each little laugh kept drawing us again
Early on, those words just slipped out free
“I love you”—then I knew what we could be

> Babygirl Gigi, you light up my skies
> I fell deeper than I knew I could fall
> God’s own blessing, in your laughing eyes
> You’re my forever girl, after all

When surgery left me needing extra care
You cared for me with warmth beyond compare
Your laughter made the heavy moments bright
Your beautiful smile filled the room with light
Your breathtaking eyes can stop my breath
In those kind eyes, I find my quiet rest
You’re compassionate through and through
And every day I fall more deep for you

> Babygirl Gigi, you light up my skies
> I fell deeper than I knew I could fall
> God’s own blessing, in your laughing eyes
> You’re my forever girl, after all

Your clever mind can make me stop and stare
Your funny way brings joy beyond compare
That naughty side can turn an evening bright
And every laugh with you just feels so right
You're smart in ways that keep surprising me
Your warmth is where I always want to be
A joy to be around in all you do
With every day, I fall more deep for you

I can’t imagine living life alone
Without your love, the world would lose its song
With you, my heart has finally found its home
I’ll love you deeper all life long

> Babygirl Gigi, you light up my skies
> I fell deeper than I knew I could fall
> God’s own blessing, in your laughing eyes
> You’re my forever girl, after all

Just you and me, wherever life may go
My forever girl, the truest love I know
