A SONG WRITTEN FOR ETHAN

Home Wherever You Go

Christmas

A friend convinced me, just one try
I never meant to stay online
You were my first match, passing by Something said your heart was mine
By our second date, “I love you”
Boyfriend, girlfriend sounded true

> Ethan, you came when I needed you most
> You showed me I was worth holding close
> I’ll cherish you wherever we go
> More than you’ll ever know

Before Alaska took you away
We’d started dating day by day
Sometimes the field takes your phone away
And I wait softly through the day
Through this legal battle, you stayed
From the beginning, unafraid
You’ve seen me vulnerable and torn
And loved me through each heavy storm

> Ethan, you came when I needed you most
> You showed me I was worth holding close
> I’ll cherish you wherever we go
> More than you’ll ever know

This Christmas, let these words be clear
I’ll take care of you, my dear
The rest of life, I’ll walk with you
Learning together, love made new

> Ethan, you came when I needed you most
> You showed me I was worth holding close
> I’ll cherish you wherever we go
> More than you’ll ever know

And in the quiet, I still know
My heart is home wherever you go
