A SONG WRITTEN FOR MICKI

Blue Eyes, Hidden Heart

Just because

Your beautiful blue eyes meet mine
You put the others first in line
That smile brings a warm, steady glow
Though you are dying for attention, I know
Let me see the heart you hide
Let me stand right by your side

> Micki, you deserve to be held close
> Your heart gives more than anyone knows
> Just because, I want you to know
> I love you most

As growing older gets hard to bear
I'll hold your hand and stay right there
You need not hide what you may feel
My love for you is strong and real
Let all the care you give return
Let it be your time to learn
I'll make you room to just be you
And keep those blue eyes in my view

> Micki, you deserve to be held close
> Your heart gives more than anyone knows
> Just because, I want you to know
> I love you most

Whatever years may bring our way
I'll choose you more with every day
No grand reason, no special show
Just because I need you to know

> Micki, you deserve to be held close
> Your heart gives more than anyone knows
> Just because, I want you to know
> I love you most

Your blue eyes shine into the night
Your smile still leads my heart to light
