A SONG WRITTEN FOR BETH

Tree of Life

Birthday

Over coffee, our shared laughter glows
Warm words are all I need to know
Ten years once stood between our ways
I watched you through your smaller days
Now every hour feels rich and bright
Sixty years young, the world feels just right

> Beth, loving you is easy, it's true
> You're my tree of life, my best friend too
> Happy 60th birthday, sweet girl
> I love you more than all the world

Miscommunication kept us apart
For more than ten years, heart from heart
Then we found our way back to light
Now coffee chats make mornings bright
I lend an ear through rougher days
I'll stand in your corner, come what may
Your graceful heart lights every room
Like flowers opening into bloom

> Beth, loving you is easy, it's true
> You're my tree of life, my best friend too
> Happy 60th birthday, sweet girl
> I love you more than all the world

One day, we'll live close, you and I
Share coffee under morning sky
Beside a laughing brook we'll stay
Happy 60th, may it light your way

> Beth, loving you is easy, it's true
> You're my tree of life, my best friend too
> Happy 60th birthday, sweet girl
> I love you more than all the world

The sun breaks through the clouds above
You are my tree of life, my sweet Sissy
