A SONG WRITTEN FOR CHRISTOPHER

Forever Choosing You

Anniversary

At Elementary School, we shared our first kiss
Two kids, not knowing love like this
I walked the aisle in my wedding dress
You saw me then, and I felt blessed
Then on our first dance, you held me tight
You made me feel that I'd be all right

> Christopher, you are everything
> No words can explain the love I bring
> You lift me up, you understand
> My best friend, take my hand again

In Pitman's kitchen, I said it clear
"I love me that good butt butt," my dear
Through ups and downs, we stayed as one
Hard times could never make us run
Loyal and loving, you provide
A wonderful father by my side
You understand me like no one can
You lift me up again and again

> Christopher, you are everything
> No words can explain the love I bring
> You lift me up, you understand
> My best friend, take my hand again

On this anniversary, I say
I'll choose you each and every day
With my hand in yours, we'll meet what's new
My whole heart will keep choosing you

> Christopher, you are everything
> No words can explain the love I bring
> You lift me up, you understand
> My best friend, take my hand again

That first dance still carries on
In every beat where I belong
