A SONG WRITTEN FOR AMY

Eternal Birthday Promise

Birthday

The day you were born changed everything
You completed our family that day
Love filled the room like birds in spring
And made our hearts a place to stay
From then on, you've been my best friend
With tender care that has no end

> Amy, on your birthday, hear me say
> One precious gift in every way
> Wherever I am, I'll find my way
> Beside you, come what may

Beside your brother, you both grew
Your amazing bond has stayed so strong
Through all the hard days, love stayed true
You gave each other strength to belong
These days, your health can feel unkind
I wish I could take that weight away
But I am always close in mind
To hear you through the night and day

> Amy, on your birthday, hear me say
> One precious gift in every way
> Wherever I am, I'll find my way
> Beside you, come what may

When you need me, I will hear
At your side without delay
Wherever I am, I'll still be near
Time has no meaning anyway

> Amy, on your birthday, hear me say
> One precious gift in every way
> Wherever I am, I'll find my way
> Beside you, come what may

My love will shine like morning light
Beside you through the darkest night
