A SONG WRITTEN FOR HANNAH

Against the World

Birthday

Each day, you ring me for a chat
When technology defeats us flat
You patiently come to our aid
With Barry, every worry fades
Your caring heart is always near
And turns our small storms bright and clear

> Hannah, I love you without end
> I'm proud of the woman you grew to be
> You're my dear daughter, truest friend
> Against the world, you and me

The Carpenters sang soft and clear
"You and Me Against the World", my dear
We listened side by side and swore
To be there, now and evermore
At Morrisons, the years were hard
Yet you kept going, did your part
Your love stayed strong when days were long
And found the strength to carry on

> Hannah, I love you without end
> I'm proud of the woman you grew to be
> You're my dear daughter, truest friend
> Against the world, you and me

On your birthday, hear me say
I'll stand beside you all the way
May every dream you hold come true
With all my love surrounding you

> Hannah, I love you without end
> I'm proud of the woman you grew to be
> You're my dear daughter, truest friend
> Against the world, you and me

Your daily call still warms my day
Against the world, we'll find our way

Scan to listen to your song

YOURMELODY
ORIGINAL EDITION · NO. 25551