A SONG WRITTEN FOR RACHEL

Two Separate Dreams

Just because

1:16 3:44

At Amies dance class, we found the beat
We followed music with our feet
You made the quiet feel like light
When I had no words, you stayed in sight
Your heart leans toward each living thing
Your art gives colour room to sing

> Rachel, our paths met, now we walk as one
> Two separate dreams beneath one sun
> I'm blessed to share this road with you
> Two independent dreams stay true

At the Rythem Hut, we found our sway
The music took our cares away
When your dog Pumpkin left your side
I saw the tears you held inside
Your hands make colours breathe and glow
You see the grace in things that grow
And when my words are hard to find
You wait, then ease my restless mind

> Rachel, our paths met, now we walk as one
> Two separate dreams beneath one sun
> I'm blessed to share this road with you
> Two independent dreams stay true

We'll follow every dream we choose
While walking on this road as two
Two separate dreams, a single way
I'll choose your hand, day after day

> Rachel, our paths met, now we walk as one
> Two separate dreams beneath one sun
> I'm blessed to share this road with you
> Two independent dreams stay true

The music fades, but not the glow
We keep the rhythm as we go
