A SONG WRITTEN FOR KATHY

Generous Heart

Birthday

You married Brother Jim long years ago
More than forty years have made love grow
A wonderful mother, wife, and gran
Your creative spark has its own plan
My patient bridge partner, loyal and near
A friend who brings a little cheer

> Kathy, this Christmas, here's what's true
> No one brings the care that comes from you
> Your generous heart stays kind and true
> I wish we could clone you

You give so much, expecting less
Your gentle ways bring tenderness
When illness took your dad away
Your mother followed soon one day
Still, you held on through darkest night
And kept your heart a source of light
Your patient friendship, loyal, warm
Brings shelter in the passing storm

> Kathy, this Christmas, here's what's true
> No one brings the care that comes from you
> Your generous heart stays kind and true
> I wish we could clone you

May every year return your care
With gentle joys for you to share
May all the love you send shine through
And bring its warmth right back to you

> Kathy, this Christmas, here's what's true
> No one brings the care that comes from you
> Your generous heart stays kind and true
> I wish we could clone you

May this Christmas hold a quiet cheer
With those who hold you close and dear
